Biological Engineering Program Educational Objectives (PEOs)

Within the first five years following graduation, NC State’s Biological Engineering graduates will:
1. Excel in their careers or in graduate school by applying their knowledge of engineering principles, processes, and procedures;
2. Practice engineering professionally and ethically;
3. Communicate effectively in a professional environment; and

Modified and affirmed: November 6, 2015